AUDITIONS TO BE HELD FOR JOINT PRODUCTION OF THE WORLD GOES ROUND

MANSFIELD, OHIO. The Renaissance Performing Arts Association and Richland Academy of the Arts announce that open auditions will be held on Sunday, November 18th from 2PM – 5PM for a production of The World Goes Round. Auditions will be held at the Richland Academy, 75 N. Walnut in downtown Mansfield. All roles cast will be for adults ages 18 and up. All auditionees should come prepared to sing thirty two bars of their best song and will need to provide their own sheet music. An accompanist will be provided. No tapes or CD's will be allowed. Auditionees are asked to call Richland Academy to sign up for an audition time in advance at 419-522-8224. Please come prepared with your December schedule of availability.

This production of the World Goes Round will be directed by Matthew Joslyn, executive director of the Renaissance Theatre, and Michael Thomas. Richland Academy and RPAA are thrilled to be presenting the show in the first co-produced event between the two downtown arts organizations. Performance dates will be December 29, 30, and 31. For more information, contact Brandon Smith at the Renaissance: 419-522-2726, ext. 211.
